Biography

With over 25 years experience in the financial services industry Garcia works with regional businesses drawing on in-depth expertise and comprehensive capabilities, partnering with clients to seamlessly deliver tailored solutions that meet their changing needs and enable them to transform opportunities into realities at every step.

As a Client Manager with Bank of America in the Global Commercial Banking division, she is responsible for consulting with commercial entities across the region. Client coverage of general industries in El Paso, southern New Mexico and the state of Chihuahua, MX, includes manufacturing, healthcare, technology, distributors, service provider industries, and not-for-profit organizations. Garcia leads a dedicated client team who provide integrated delivery of comprehensive financial capabilities. Additionally, she serves as Bank President for the El Paso market since 2009. Garcia was recognized by the U. S. Hispanic Chamber of Commerce with the 2010 Ultimate Latina in Financial Services.

Garcia's career in the financial services industry includes experience in a variety of roles, such as Consumer Lending, Community Development, Branch Administration, Cash Management and Commercial Banking.

As a member of the community, and in keeping with Bank of America's commitment to the communities it serves, Garcia has served many community organizations over the years through volunteer service. Her efforts were recognized as a recipient of the 2010 International Women's Day Award by La Mujer Obrera.

She is currently active with the El Paso Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, University Medical Center Foundation, El Paso Firemen and Policemen's Pension Fund, YWCA Foundation, a founding member and Vice Chair of CommUNITY en Acción, and immediate past-President of the Border AIDS Partnership. Past service includes activities and positions such as Past-President of the YWCA El Paso del Norte Region, Vice Chair of Collaborative for Community and Economic Development, Board Member and Development Committee Chair for the EPISD Fund, and United Way Division Captain.

Terri and her husband, Gene, are the proud parents of two grown children.
